

The Ann Powell Express

Smithville's beloved trolley train, the Ann Powell Express, was made possible by a gift from longtime resident Ann Powell, who wished for children to enjoy a rideable train in Railroad Park. The Railroad Board restored a retired resort trolley, painted it in Union Pacific colors, and debuted it in the 1992 Christmas parade. Today, it remains a joyful tradition at downtown events.

Smitty the Gingerbread Man

"Smitty" the Gingerbread Man welcomes you to Smithville, Texas! On December 2, 2006, during the annual Festival of Lights, the people of Smithville came together to mix, bake, and assemble what became the world's largest gingerbread cookie. In 2008, Guinness World Records made it official—Smitty weighed in at an incredible 1,308 pounds and 8 ounces!

Today, you can still visit Smitty in his courtyard on 1st Street. As you make your own sweet memories in Smithville, we invite you to share them with the world by tagging your photos with #VisitSmithvilleTX.
